

AADO 2011 Winter Educational Conference

November 13, 2011

Jeffrey Macheimer

Sponsored by Cooper Vision

Mr. Macheimer has been involved in the Ophthalmic Industry for the past thirty years. Originally trained in the United States Army as an ophthalmic specialist he continued his training at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation. While there he provided contact lens care and services under the direction of the staff corneal Ophthalmologist. In addition, Jeffrey worked with the pediatric and ophthalmic reconstructive departments providing contact lenses as were required during the patient's course of treatment.

For the past twenty years Jeffrey has been involved mainly in the development and marketing of specialty contact lens products. He has provided well over a thousand hours of continuing education and has been active in both the US domestic and international markets. Currently Jeffrey provides technical support for Cooper Vision in the specialty soft contact lens division.

David Lipkin

David Lipkin is an ABO Training Specialist for Marchon Eyewear and an ABO certified speaker and author of many ABO certified CE courses. He is a licensed Optician in Arizona and an ABO certified Optician; a graduate of the "Coburn School of Optical Engineering", David is from a three generation optical family and has 35 years of experience in the industry.

David owned his own Optical retail dispensary and is a past owning partner and VP of design and development of Arizona's first multi-state Optical superstore chain. David speaks frequently around the country for organizations including AADO, AZOA, COA, GWCO and for VSP/Marchon.
